Covid Guidance (regularly updated)

Please follow current Government Covid Guidance when visiting our art or performance venues, including Open Studios. Please respect any individual Open Studio or venue's own guidelines. PAW Trustees cannot accept liability for individuals' own behaviour.

Our winner for the cover of this year's Brochure is Marion Spencer for her work entitled Spring Dryad. Congratulations, Marion!

Internet reception may be unreliable so we strongly recommend that you download this brochure on your mobile device so you have a copy at hand.

A huge welcome to Purbeck Art Weeks 2021!

We are delighted to be back – and hope you'll enjoy exploring all our Open Studios, and our wildly eclectic collective exhibition in historic Rollington Barn. Don't miss the work of Purbeck's younger artists and musicians, Purbeck's poets or a chance to find out about Mapping Time!

The best place to start your visit is at Rollington Barn, near Corfe Castle. Here you can see at least one piece of work from all our exhibiting artists, and pick up a handy Open Studio map. It's a good place to get updated on what's happening over the fortnight, and plan your art trail and evening's events – whilst enjoying delicious refreshments in the café and lunchtime performances by local musicians.

We have been thrilled to bring live music back to Purbeck with concerts featuring world class musicians performing in beautiful Purbeck churches: I Fagiolini celebrating the seasons, Rachel Podger playing Bach, Michael Collins and colleagues playing wind quintets, our friends from Fieri Consort joining with Chelys Consort of Viols and some outstanding trombone players in Swanage on 21 August.

Do visit the Renewal Tree at Rollington Barn before you leave! 'Renewal' is the Festival theme and we hope you will feel inspired, uplifted and revived by the exciting range of music, art and talks we are proud to be offering this year.

Come and enjoy it with us!

Charlotte Heath, Chair, Purbeck Art Weeks Festival

Foreword

FROM THE FESTIVAL PRESIDENT

We live in a different world now. We hope it will return to more or less the way it was before but I suspect it will not and the future will be different. Some of the changes will be good and others not so, and it will be personal, because the Pandemic has impinged on all our lives. We sadly all have experience of the effect of Covid on the lives of people we know.

The creative world that we are all lucky enough to be part of, has of course suffered, with artists unable to work, sell their creations, take part in group rehearsals and performances - but at last, with the success of the vaccination programme, we are seeing the green shoots of a new spring appearing.

PAW 2021 is witness to this regeneration and some 27 studios and a range of exhibitions are all opening their doors to a public hungry for the flash of genius, the inspiration, the vision, the skill and the workmanship that PAW has always found within its beautiful Purbeck countryside. As President of PAW I would like to express my admiration, congratulations and thanks to all those that have produced work during this difficult period and are exhibiting this year.

I would also like to thank all those that have put in the hours of rehearsal time to perfect the music and stage performances that will be enjoyed during the festival. From William Byrd to Manning Sherwin via Bach, Beethoven and Wagner I know it will be uplifting.

Finally, my grateful thanks and admiration to the organisers of PAW who have put together a wonderful programme of talent and excitement, visual splendour and thought-provoking wonder in this year's Festival against all the difficulties, uncertainties and obstacles that the pandemic has strewn in their path.

ROLLINGTON BARN

Rollington Barn hosts PAW's collective exhibition showcasing the fantastic range of creative talent on show across Purbeck; paintings and prints rub shoulders with ceramics, photography, woodcrafts and greetings cards. Artwork can be purchased and taken away on the day. We accept cash, cheques and most credit and debit cards.

As a hub for the PAW festival, Rollington Barn provides a taste of what can be discovered by visiting our Open Studios, many of which provide a unique opportunity to meet our artists. You will find a warm welcome in those often less known and hidden corners of Purbeck.

Rollington Barn is also an excellent place to start planning your art trail. On the barn door a large PAW map will help you find your way around the Open Studios and events locations. You can also pick up a handy Open Studio map. Any changes to Open Studios or Events will be posted on a notice board.

Love Cake's pop up courtyard café offers a selection of delicious homemade cakes, light lunches and hot and cold drinks. Opening hours are 10.00am – 5.00pm. In addition you can enjoy a series of free informal lunch time performances – the timings for these will be posted up at Rollington.

In the byre, across the courtyard from the main barn, is one of Rollington's highlights; an eclectic display of artistic creativity and imagination by our Purbeck Young Artists, students from local schools, that will provide inspiration to all.

At the other end of the byre you will find this year's community project – our Renewal Tree. This interactive installation will evolve during the course of the Festival. Inspired by the work and ideas of PAW artist Jay Goulding, who died in 2020,

PURBECK YOUNG ARTISTS EXHIBITION

Encouraging and celebrating art created locally by young people is at the very heart of PAW. In a normal year we try and involve around 500 Purbeck Young Artists (PYA) in schools across the area in creative activities – this year it has been less. Students are encouraged to develop art works on the festival theme, which this year is 'Renewal'. The workshops have been coordinated by Sebastian McEwen and are implemented by a talented team of artists, each of whom have experience of working with young people. The range of workshops span metalwork, photography, rust printing, sculpture, dance and puppetry. You can see the inspiring results at Rollington Barn.

We would like to express our gratitude to The Friends of the Festival and to all our Sponsors for supporting our work with young people. We would also like to thank the schools and teachers involved this difficult year for recognising the importance of art and creativity for young people going forward.

The PYA exhibition can be found in the newly refurbished cow byre next to the main Rollington Barn exhibition.

Calling all Artists

MAPPING TIME: ILLUSTRATED TALK BY MARY SPARKS

Tuesday 14th September | 7.30pm,

Harman's Cross Village Hall,
BH19 3EB

Tickets: £10 adults, £2 students

How has the landscape of eastern Purbeck changed over time?

Who were the 'Lords of the manors' and what did they control?

Mary Sparks will share her 'research in progress', using maps and documents from different periods to explore land holding patterns from Edward the Confessor's reign to the present day. She will interrogate ideas about 'the Manor', assessing how these ideas relate to what actually existed on the ground. Coloured parish tithe maps of Swanage, Studland, Langton Matravers, Worth Matravers and Corfe from c.1840 showing land ownership will be presented, and Afflington Manor will feature as a focussed example of the wider picture.

Dr Mary Sparks is a local historian who has researched aspects of village life in Worth Matravers in the 19th and 20th Centuries, including the 'Social Mobility of the Country Cottage'. She also used maps in her research on Sarajevo – in that context to explore themes of segregation and social integration in the city. We will display copies of some of the old maps at the talk.

We have for many years reached out to young people and, with support from a range of valued funders, run workshops in most schools across Purbeck. Our young people benefit from the experience of our artists who lead these workshops and the opportunity to be creative, innovative and have fun! We will be celebrating their achievements in particular at our central exhibition area at Rollington Barn, near Corfe Castle, in September.

This Brochure was coordinated by Zoey Ingarfield and the Publicity Team.

Designed by Louise Leffler.

This year we decided to keep the Brochure online. Next year we hope it will again be printed.
